BY-LAWS AND RULES FOR THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

I. The Managers shall meet on the second Tuesday of each month, at such time and place as they shall appoint.

II. Seven of the Managers shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business—except the election of Managers.

III. Every meeting shall be opened with reading a portion of Scripture, succeeded by a prayer.

IV. All reports of committees shall be in writing.

V. The President shall call extra meetings when she may think proper, or when three members unite in a request for the purpose.

VI. No member shall leave the meetings without permission, nor shall any lady unnecessarily change her seat, or engage in unnecessary conversation, before the Board has adjourned; also, every lady shall stand while reading reports, addressing the chair, or discussing the business of the meeting.

VII. The business of each stated meeting shall commence with calling the roll, followed by the Secretary reading the minutes of the preceding meeting, the Treasurer's report, report of Corresponding Secretary, Matron's report and the reports of committees, which if not presented must be asked for by the presiding officer. The unfinished business shall then be called up, any new business brought forward, and the weekly committees for the ensuing month announced.

VIII. After the annual meeting the standing committees shall be appointed, viz.: The weekly committees for the year, which shall be inserted by the Secretary in the minute-book of the Committee; the Purchasing Committee; the Committee for Receiving Applications for Admission; the Employment Committee; Committee on Religious Services, and such other committees as may be required.

IX. It shall be the duty of the Employment Committee to procure material and prepare work adapted to the capacity of each inmate, that all may be suitably supplied when able to be employed. They shall keep an account of all work given out and returned; they shall also keep an account of money expended for material and received from the sale of articles. Should it be necessary during the absence of the Committee for the Matron to give out material or receive money from the sale of goods, an account of the same shall be handed to the Committee, who shall report in full to the Board at each stated meeting.

X. The Purchasing Committee shall, upon a requisition from the Matron, make all necessary purchases for the Home except the daily marketing, the bills for which shall be presented to the Treasurer. They shall keep a cash-book, in which all receipts and expenditures shall be entered, a report of which, in detail, must be submitted to the Board monthly, at its stated meeting.

XI. The Committee on Religious Services shall consist of ten or more members, two of whom shall be appointed monthly, whose duty shall be to see that the Home is duly supplied with the preaching of the Gospel, and who shall have a general supervision of the religious services.

The Committee shall have the Home supplied with preaching once or twice on the Sabbath-day.

The Committee shall give verbal instructions to the Matron how to act in relation to this subject in the absence of the Committee.

XII. A standing Committee on Printing shall be appointed by the Society, to whom all matter requisite to be printed shall be referred.

XIII. The names of such persons as shall suitably represent the various churches may be handed to the Managers at any stated meeting, and shall be by them presented to the Nominating Committee; but in all cases one month must elapse between the presentation of the name of the proposed manager and the final action upon the same by the Board.

XIV. The Visiting Committee shall visit the Home not less than twice during the week; they shall endeavor to be present at one of the meals, shall make themselves acquainted with the situation and wants of the inmates generally, direct the concerns of the family, and report their observations in a minute-book kept for that purpose, which book shall be passed over to the members of the succeeding committee.

The Committee shall supply the Home with one or more religious services during the week, as circumstances will permit.

XV.—COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS.

Five managers shall be appointed, to whom, at its stated meetings, the Board shall present the names of applicants for admission.

This Committee shall inquire into the character and circumstances of those making application, see that they have the necessary certificates from their pastor or session, are able to pay their own board, or provide some responsible persons who will pay it for them, or will pay one hundred and fifty dollars admission fee.

They shall require each applicant to sign a paper pledging herself to abide by the rules of the Home.

The Committee shall then refer the case to the Board, which shall in all cases reserve the right to decide upon the admission of applicants.

XVI.—A MEMORIAL FOUNDATION.

The gift or bequest of three thousand dollars ($3,000) shall constitute a Memorial Foundation, which shall be called after the name of the donor, or as he or she may designate. The income of the endowment so made shall be appropriated to the perpetual maintenance and support of an inmate in the Home, the person or corporation so contributing being entitled to the privilege of nominating the inmate for admission into the Home, in conformity with the rules of the Institution.

XVII. Life-memberships may be constituted by the payment of twenty-five dollars ($25).

XVIII.—THE MATRON.

The Matron, under the direction of the Board, shall have charge of the house, shall enforce the rules of the Managers, prescribe the hours of meals, be present at and ask a blessing upon them.

She shall keep a book, which shall contain a list of the furniture, linen, etc., belonging to the Home; also presents made to the inmates or the Institution, and the names of the donors.

She shall render a monthly account to the Treasurer of all money entrusted to and expended by her; also a report to the Board monthly, of the condition of the Home and situation of the inmates generally.

She shall grant all leave of absence, inquire where the inmate intends staying, and the probable length of her visit.

She shall make out a requisition of the needed supplies, and submit the same to the Purchasing Committee.

XIX.—THE INMATES.

Applicants for admission must be residents of the State of Pennsylvania; have been members of the Presbyterian Church in some one of its branches, for three years, of this bring satisfactory proof by letter from their pastor or session, and, except in cases of special infirmity, have reached the age of sixty-five years.

They must pay the sum of $150, and must also sign a paper binding themselves to submit to the Matron, and abide by the rules of the house.

Any inmate who shall wish to leave the Institution, through dissatisfaction or any other cause, shall be permitted to do so, but shall not be eligible for re-admission. She shall also forfeit her admission-fee, or that portion of it which shall be equivalent to her board during the term of her residence in the Home.

All personal property of residents of the Home at the time of their decease shall be disposed of at the discretion of the Admission Committee.

Those who are pensioners upon any benevolent institution or society, it is expected will have their pensions continued to assist in their support, and that their funeral expenses shall be paid.

Those who have any property are required to secure the same to the Institution before they are admitted. All shall be required to sign the following agreement, transferring to the Institution any property they may acquire after admission, in case they remain in the Home.

I hereby agree with the PRESBYTERIAN HOME FOR WIDOWS AND SINGLE WOMEN, in the State of Pennsylvania, that in case I acquire any property after my admission to the said Home, that if I remain in said Home, I will assign and transfer the same to the said Corporation, and this shall be taken as and for such assignment and transfer.

Witness my hand and seal this day of A. D., 187 .

SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

It is with gratitude for a loving Father's care, that we again offer to our friends and patrons our Annual Report.

We enter upon our sixth year, with the inmates of our Home numbering sixty-three. Fourteen have been admitted during the past year, and four have been taken to that Heavenly Home where there is no parting forever.

For this year, as for those that have passed, we have many causes for thankfulness; a kind Providence has watched over us, kept us in safety, and put it into the hearts of many to help us. This being the comfort and support on which the inmates of the Home depend, we hope, as our household grows larger, so may our friends multiply. A large number are still waiting for admittance who cannot be accommodated for lack of room, and we desire to remove this hindrance to our increased usefulness by erecting during the coming spring and summer, if the necessary funds can be obtained, an additional wing to the present building, in accordance with the architect's original plan, which will contain twenty-four rooms, and a chapel for our religious services.

We are glad to find that the Presbyterian Home has become an object of interest and endeared itself to the hearts of so many. During the year past several churches have for the first time sent representatives to our Board of Managers, thus manifesting an increasing interest in this good work.

The spiritual interests of our family have been duly cared for; each Sabbath afternoon the inmates listen to the words of hope and life from one of Christ's servants, Our Ministers have been very kind in taking charge of these services, as well as those of prayer and praise during the week.

We have not let the Holidays of the year pass by without some thought of the pleasure and happiness of the members of our household. Christmas, Fourth of July, and Thanksgiving Day, they sat down to tables bountifully supplied with the good things of the season; two of these dinners were donated by the Managers and their friends.

We are greatly indebted for the kind and careful services of Dr. P. J. Hoopes, Dr. Ogden, and Dr. J. W. Thatcher—ever ready and patient in their constant attention in the sick-room, and would return special thanks to Dr. H. Lenox Hodge for prompt and efficient aid at times when a surgeon's skill was needed. A. H. Bennett, D. D. S., has offered his services gratuitously whenever needed, which we also here acknowledge.

The untiring fidelity of our Matron, Miss Julia A. Rumel, in her oversight of the domestic interests of the Institution and its inmates, is entitled to our fullest commendation.

The Employment Committee, having in charge the useful and fancy Articles made during the year, report receipts to the amount of $380.89; $206.76 being the proceeds of sales on Anniversary Day. On this, as on previous occasions, when the house was thrown open for the reception of our friends, the "Home" table in the parlor was laden with the work of the inmates, showing how successful the attempt to keep both mind and hands employed, thus to make life in the Home both useful and happy.

The Festival was a success not alone financially, but in keeping the Home before the minds of the members of our churches; for we would again remind our friends that to them we must look for the necessary aid to carry on our work, and from them we earnestly ask substantial support and continual prayer for God's blessing on and in our Home.

We are indebted to the Presbyterian and many of the daily papers for their kind mention of our festival and other notices.
